Good thoughts are the base of good conduct and good behaviour.

A man should accumulate
good thoughts.

It is my belief that, with
"One advice for each day"
the readers will accumulate
good thoughts.

~ Acharya Mahashraman

January

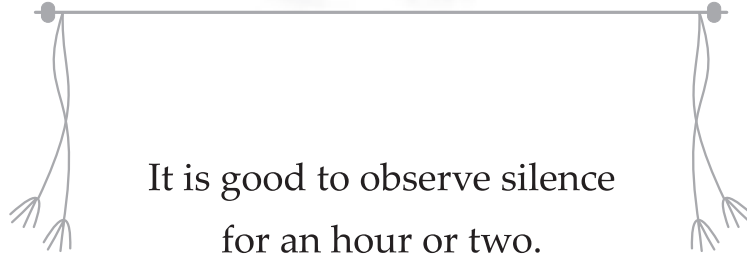

Year comes and goes.
There's nothing special about it.
Every year should be a period of man's progress.

It is good to observe silence
for an hour or two.
But it is not good
to speak unnecessarily.

01 02 03 04 05 06 07 08 09 10 11 12 13 14 15

16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31

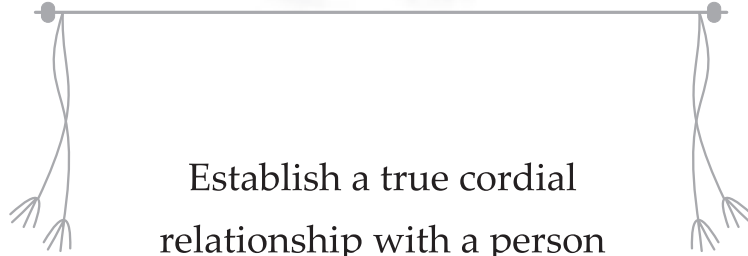

Time is money.
Use it wisely.
Do not waste it over useless tasks.

16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31

Establish a true cordial relationship with a person whom you befriend
and pledge to benefit each other.

16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31

Do not let the door of your lips
open up unnecessarily.
Then observe,
how much energy and
peace generates within you.

16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31

Learn to live in the present.
By flowing in the unnecessary memories of the past and to fly into the sky of unknown future,
the present will slip away silently.

A person, on one hand knows that life is fickle and on the other hand in the context of religious practice his thoughts are
"not today but tomorrow".
"what an incongruity!"

Acharya Mahashraman : An Introduction

Acharya Mahashraman is the eleventh Acharya of the Terapanth Dharm Sangh. Acharya Mahashraman is a austere ascetic, a powerful orator, an erudite scholar, a prolific writer, a social reformer and an exponent of non - violence. Bereft of worldly desires, unattached, unperturbed, loyal, humble, full of spark, soft-spoken, generous and open minded are just some of the words that can be used to describe his inner self.

He was born in Sardarshahar, a town of Rajasthan on 13 May 1962, was initiated on 5th of May 1974 and was ordained as the Acharya of the Terapanth Dharm Sangh after the propounder of Anuvrat movement Acharya Tulsi and Acharya Mahapragya respectively.

His work and actions reflect his ocean of knowledge, intellectual wisdom, subtle perception and far reaching insight.

He has inspired and awakened lakhs and lakhs of people by laying emphasis on human values such as morality, communal harmony, non-violence and spirituality.

Acharya Mahashraman is working tirelessly on Anuvrat, Preksha meditation, Science of living, training on non-violence and on various other dimensions of human values thus helping people to lead a peaceful and restrained life in a world plagued with stress, turmoil unrest and violence.
